Introduction

Studienkolleg prepares applicants with a school-leaving certificate from abroad to study in Germany since some school-leaving certificates do not have a university entrance qualification in Germany.

Studienkolleg consists of two academic semesters or a full academic year

Reasons for the missing university entrance qualification

- School system
- The teaching contents
- The duration of school attendance

Reasons might be a bit different in Germany.

Types of Studienkollegs

Official Studienkolleg

Private Studienkolleg

Official Studienkolleg

Official Studienkollegs are usually tuition-free and their degree is usually valid to study anywhere in Germany

Type of official studienkollegs:

-University studienkolleg:

Students can study after finishing Studienkollegs at the university and Hochschule (University of applied science)

-Fachhochschul-Studienkolleg:

Students can study after finishing Studienkollegs at university of applied science

AVOIDING STUDIENKOLLEGS

If you have completed one or two years at the university, then there is no need for Studienkolleg, and you can start studying directly after having DSH II at German universities

Grades needed for the preparatory course (studienkolleg) differs from one country to another (as shown in the table before)

Feststellungsprüfung (FSP)

FSP determines the suitability of the international applicants without HSP for studying at universities or universities of applied science in Germany. All official studienkollegs offer FSP two times per year.

Students at studienkollegs make the FSP after finishing the second semester

TYPES OF FSP

INTERN FSP:

Students at studienkollegs make the FSP after finishing the second semester

- Passing chance over 80 %

EXTERN FSP:

People who learn externally at private Studienkolleg or alone can make the FCP as an extern participant at the official studienkolleg or at the Land (Ex. Land NRW in Köln)

Participant has the chance two times per year to make the FSP

- Passing Chance about 20 %

Private Studienkolleg

Private Studienkolleg (Courses in German):

- Fees: Between 3.000 Euro – 12.000 Euro

Private Studienkolleg (Courses in English):

- Fees: 12,000 Euro – 17,000 Euro
- Duration: 8 to 12 Months
- No Entrance exam
- T and W Courses

Note:

Some private Studienkolleg does not offer valid certificates in all of Germany, therefore students must apply with the help of their school to an external Feststellungsprüfung at an official Studienkolleg
